Day 1: Leh:

Day 01: ARRIVAL ACCLIMATIZATION LEH PALACE SHANTI STUPA

A warm welcome at Kushok Bakula Rimpochee Airport in Leh at an elevation of 3500m above sea level and board the vehicle for a transfer to hotel. Check in to the hotel for a half day of rest for acclimatization. Evening drive to visit Leh Palace Known as Lhachen Palkhar. The former palace of the royal family of Leh was erected in the 17th century. The palace was one of the tallest structures with 9 stories during its heydays and now a wonderful example of medieval Ladakhi art. Later visit Shanti Stupa on a hilltop overlooking the beautiful city of Leh, a marvelous gigantic white domed dedicated to Buddhism was built in 1991 by Japanese and Ladakhi Buddhists to commemorate Buddhism and promote world peace. Here you can enjoy the various shades of the sky with the golden light illuminating the valley as the sun sets. In the evening walk around the local market. Dinner and overnight stay at the Hotel in Leh.

Day 2: Leh:

Day 02: LEH SANGAM LEH

Day starts with Hall of Fame, which encapsulates the essence of patriotism and displays exhibits relating the bravery of Indian soldiers and their courageous accomplishments. Later we will proceed to Sangam (Confluence of Zaskar and Indus River), enroute we will visit locally popular Kali Mata temple dedicated to Goddess Kali Mata Temple, followed by Spituk Gompa - an 11th century monastery. Next on the list of attractions is Gurdwara Pathar Sahib, which was constructed by the Lamas of Leh in 1517 in memory and honor of Guru Nanak - the founder of the Sikh faith. Drive another few km to witness Magnetic Hill, the place where gravity takes a backseat. It is marked by a yellow signboard which reads "The Phenomenon That Defies Gravity". When a car is placed in neutral, it will begin to roll backwards, apparently uphill. Driving through a picturesque landscape, we reach the confluence of the Indus and Zaskar River (Sangam), Zaskar river rafting is the highest in the world and 2nd toughest in India and known for the famous 'Chadar Trek' (frozen river) during winter when the temperature plunges to -30-degree Celsius. Driving along the NH1, we returned to Leh in the evening. Overnight stay in Leh.

Day 03: LEH KHARDONG LA PASS NUBRA

After an early breakfast we will proceed to Khardongla, driving over one of the highest motorable roads in the world at an altitude of 18,379 ft. ... We stop at the pass to admire and click some photographs of the fantastic view. Later head towards Nubra, locally known as Dhumra 'The valley of flower' the valley is situated on an old caravan route at the confluence of the Shayok and the Nubra rivers. Crossing the charming valley of Diskit – the tiny capital of Nubra, we will visit the Diskit Monastery, perched on a rocky spur above the village, with a commanding view of the entire valley. Here you will witness magnificent 106-feet high, statue of Maitreya Buddha on the hill. From Diskit we will drive towards Hunder, popular for its camel ride in the high-altitude cold desert. The camel safaris are done on Bactrian Double-humped Camels which are reminder the bygone era of Silk Route trade. The vast stretch of sand dunes between Hunder Village and Diskit is where you will see the Bactrian Camels grazing in the sea-buckthorn forests. It is also where most of the safari rides are offered. Here you can enjoy double-humped camel ride, ATV, Karting, Zip lining on direct payment basis. In the evening we will drive back to the camp/hotel. Dinner and overnight in camp/hotel at Nubra.

Day 4: Leh:

Day 04: NUBRA TURTUK NUBRA

The village of Turtuk is among the newest additions to the list of tourist destinations in Ladakh. It is a small village sandwiched between the Karakorum Range and the Himalayas, and one of the northernmost villages of India, close to the Line of Control between India and Pakistan. "On the night of December 13, 1971, the people of this village went to sleep in Pakistan. The next morning, they woke up in India." A border village that was recaptured by the Indian Army in 1971 is now controlled mainly by the Ladakh Scouts a rear department of the Indian Army. Locals have relatives across the border (Line of Control). Turtuk is one of the few places in India where one can witness Balti culture, and there is an old royal house to see in the village. Turtuk is known for its fruit, especially apricots. A full day rough excursion and evening back to Nubra Valley. Overnight in camp/hotel at Nubra.

Day 05: NUBRA SIACHEN NUBRA

After an early morning breakfast, head out towards Siachen Base Camp at an altitude of 5,753 meters (18,875 ft). It is an active battle zone where Indian and Pakistani forces remain engaged in conflict all 12 months. This is where the road ends and treks to various army posts at Siachen glacier begin. Siachen is the highest battlefield in the world. Indian Army captured it in 1984 through Operation Meghdoot. Drive back to Hunder, enroute visit Panamik hot water springs, The hot spring water in Panamik contains high amounts of sulfur and is believed to possess a lot of medicinal properties. A lot of tourists, and locals, take a dip in the water, despite its being quite hot, as it is said to cure skin diseases & rheumatism. Overnight stay at Nubra.
