Day 2: Pokhara:

Sightseeing in Pokhara | Admire the Annapurna Peak from different angles

Post breakfast in the morning, get ready to explore Pokhara.

Start off by visiting the picturesque Phewa Lake which is lined with the snow-clad peaks of the Annapurna range.

You can choose to visit the Barahi temple located on an island in the middle of the lake by taking up a boat ride (at your own cost).

Next, visit the oldest temple of the Pokhara Valley - the Bindabasini Temple which is dedicated to the Hindu goddess Durga, who is Pokhara's chosen guardian deity.

Later, visit Devi's Falls which is also known as the underground waterfall as it creates a 500 feet long underground tunnel to reach its bottom.

Further, the downstream of Devi's waterfall is connected to the holy Gupteshwar Cave that houses a Shiv Lingam inside.

Feel a sense of peace as you walk through the caves admiring the rock formations inside.

Spend the rest of the evening by the lake, shop from local stores around the area, or get your hands on some delicious local delicacies.

The landscape of the Annapurna & Machhapuchhre mountain range might make you want to stay back in Nepal.

Return back to the hotel in Pokhara for an overnight stay.
