- Apple Valley Visit

Choose a new adventure in Kashmir by going to Pahalgam's Apple Valley. Leave Srinagar and travel towards the lovely orchards. Take a stroll around the verdant environs and observe an assortment of apples being sorted into batches by the workers. Grab one right off the tree and enjoy its juicy sweetness. Each visitor receives one glass of apple juice during the visit. Note: The ideal seasons to visit Apple Valley are summer and fall. The army must grant approval for the visit.

- Cricket Bat Factory Visit

When you visit the cricket bat factory in Kashmir, you may see how a cricket bat is made. Watch as the laborers mold, chop, and cut the willow planks into final goods that are delivered to the top cricket players in the world. Encourage the modest artisans contributing to your favorite sport. You will undoubtedly win over fans.

- Sightseeing in Pahalgam

Approximately 29 miles from Srinagar, the ruins of Avantipur, also known as Avantipura, were constructed by King Avantivarman, who established the Utpala Dynasty. They serve as a silent reminder of the Hindu dominion. The temples to Lord Shiva and Vishnu are representative of the exquisite Kashmiri architecture that was unique to that era. Despite being reduced to ruins over time, the temple continues to be a popular tourist destination. This location is well-liked for photography. On the road to Pahalgam, you might make a stop to see this location. Note: Access to the Avantipur ruins is contingent to the approval of the army. Note: For security considerations, the Avantipur Ruins may remain closed during the Amarnath Yatra.

Day: 4:Pahalgam

- Tour of Aru & Betab Valley

Enjoy the breathtaking vistas of the stunning Aru and Betab valley as you depart for a half-day excursion. During the excursion, unwind in the verdant meadows and spend time at the immaculate lakes. Take in the tranquil atmosphere of the valleys surrounded by towering mountains. You will be able to spend an hour at each destination as part of the program.
