Day: 1:Arrival In Bali And Hotel Transfer

When you arrive at Bali's Ngurah Rai International Airport, our native guide will meet you with warmth. Following a quick introduction, you will be driven to your car and transferred to your hotel, which should take no more than 20 minutes, depending on traffic. After arriving at the hotel, make yourself comfortable, and savor your first night in Kuta in a 4-star establishment.

Day: 2:Garuda Visnu Kencana - Padang Padang - Uluwatu Kecak Dance

- We travel to the Garuda Wisnu Kencana statues in the morning, which are situated within a 60-hectare park encircled by enormous limestone formations. The GWK statues, which were previously expected to be a significant landmark, have now been completed. A statue that stood 120 meters tall was the original idea. The greatest place for city sightseeing is also right there. Views of the sparkling water and the cityscape may be seen from the top of Ungasan Cliff.
- Proceed to Padang Padang Beach, Bali's well-known surf point beach. This is a very lovely location with gentle white sand, peaceful waves, and towering cliffs all around. The beach is small but unique. It was also a part of the Hollywood production "Eat, Pray, Love."
- We will later see the dramatic, traditional Kecak dance at Uluwatu Temple. The Uluwatu Temple is 70 meters above the waves of the Indonesian Ocean, perched above a precipitous cliff. Numerous monkeys live in the temple, and many of them can be seen wandering the paths. The ceremonial Kecak Dance uses colorful dances, dramatic arm motions, mesmerizing chanting, and lots of fire and flames to retell the story of the Ramayana. The breathtaking Indian Ocean as a backdrop adds to the mesmerizing effect of the dramatic performance.
- Breakfast

Day: 3: Full Day Nusa Penida Island Day Trip

- Explore the untamed and untamed western portion of the island by going off the usual path. Then, unwind in the pristine seas next to a picturesque beach. Transfer from your hotel to the harbor in the morning to catch the quick boat to the island of Nusa Penida. Travelers could start their journey by visiting Kelingking Beach, which offers a famous vista of a limestone rock formation that resembles a T-rex dinosaur's head. You will be able to see this oddly formed island as well as a wonderful stretch of beach being washed by stunning blue-green waves from above. Broken Beach and Angel Bilabong are next.
- Breakfast

Day: 4: Sunset At Tanah Lot Temple

- You have the morning free to relax or choose to participate in water sports or any other activity for an additional fee.
- Visit the magnificent Tanah Lot Temple in the afternoon, which is perched on a rock in the middle of the sea. During your excursion, you can spend time shopping for any kind of Balinese handmade item that would make a great collection or keepsake.
- Breakfast
