Kathmandu Balthali Village Trek, a short and an easy 5 days trek around Kathmandu is an introductory trekking in Nepal. Hit the trail in style and comfort on this 5-day trek along the Balthali Villages route. Considered one of the best short treks in the world, this itinerary takes you on a series of short, low-altitude hikes past small villages, lush forests, ancient temples, and terraced farmland—all set against a backdrop of the spectacular snow-capped Himalaya. The four season trek in Kathmandu's Balthali village trip is suitable for family with children, seniors to young couples who love a short treks in Kathmandu.

Day 1: Pawa:

Drive to Jarsing Pawa and Trek to Dhulikhel

We start today from Kathmandu and take an hour long drive to Jarsing Pawa. From here we start trekking towards Dhulikhel.

We pass through community forests and open landscapes with small villages that rely not only on farming and livestock but also on the forest for their daily needs. This is a great chance to get close to the daily life of the people of the villages. It is vastly different from Kathmandu.

Day 2: Namobuddha:

Trek to Namobuddha

After breakfast we start again. Hiking from Dhulikhel to Namobuddha is one of the easiest parts of the Trek. There is a small road that wraps around the hills of the Kathmandu Valley. Although it's not a "trekking trail," it's not super busy and not many travel that way. It offers amazing views along the entire walk which makes up for the cement under your feet. The "trail" is easy to navigate and isn't a very difficult walk, making it perfect for beginners.

Namobuddha Monastery is popular among Nepalese Buddhists. The monastery acts as a school for novice monks of all ages and is famous for its history. It's perched on top of a hill which offers 360 degree views of the valley below making it a popular day trip for visitors. Overnight at Namobuddha.

It could be one of the more challenging days on this Trek. However, it is also the most rewarding. The views are really lovely, the routes are remote, and there's a series of small villages that specialize in exotic farming. Evening at leisure, Overnight at Balthali.
