18D Rajasthan to Himalaya - 17 Nights / 18 Days

Cities Covered: >> Jaipur >> Bikaner >> Pushkar >> Agra >> Moradabad >> Jim Corbett >> Haridwar >> Shimla >> Manali >> Dharamshala >> Chandigarh

For those who have around three weeks holidays and want to cover most of North India - Its impossible. However, we have picked some of the iconic places to get you from the the capital city of Jaipur to the desert of Bikaner and Pushkar. Get to see the Taj and game drive for Tiger and Elephant sighting in Corbett. Divine tranquility in Haridwar and then some time in the mountains before you see the urban Punjab - Chandigarh

Day 1: Jaipur:

Today, you will start your trip from your hotel and drive to the pink city Jaipur. Arrive in Jaipur and transferred to hotel. The rest of the day is at your leisure. If time permits you may visit Birla Temple. Overnight in Hotel.

Day 2: Jaipur:

oday you have a guided tour in Jaipur includes a visit to the Amber Fort, Jal Mahal, Hawa Mahal, City Palace, and Jantar-Mantar (a scientific observatory).

The picturesque capital of Rajasthan, Jaipur is color-washed pink – the color of hospitality in Rajput tradition. Built in 1772 by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, Jaipur displays a remarkable harmony in architectural splendor. The only planned city of its time, a formidable wall encircles Jaipur. Overnight at hotel.

Day 3: Bikaner:

After having breakfast you will transfer to Sigiriya, after checking in to the hotel and afternoon you will visit Sigiriya rock fortress which is the world heritage site, according to chronicles which have been built by King Kashypa as his palace, this rock is nearly 200 m high and when you climb afternoon you can see beautiful sun set top of the rock. After coming down and resting at the hotel, overnight stay at Sigiriya.

Day 4: Pushkar:

After breakfast, you will drive to Pushkar (250 km) has a relaxed atmosphere and is an important city for pilgrims who come here to bathe in one of India's holy lakes. The afternoon is at your leisure, where we can recommend a walk around the lake. A small camel ride is also arranged.

Day 5: Agra:

Today after a long drive we reach Agra (270 km). Enroute we visit the ghost city Fatehpur Sikri. Time permitting; we'll go for a sunset view of the Taj Mahal. The evening is at your leisure.

Note:- The Taj Mahal is closed every Friday, the Muslim day of rest. If your trip dates make you arrive in Agra on a Thursday then it will be advisable to do the trip in reverse order OR visit Taj on Thursday evening as it will be closed on Friday. You will see the Taj sunset view. If you start reverse and arrive in Agra first.

Day 6: Moradabad:

Today you will start the day with the visit to beautiful Taj Mahal. After breakfast we visit the impressive Agra Fort (Red Fort) and drive to Moradabad (270 km). Moradabad was named after Murad, son of Shah Jahan (Mughal emperor who built the Taj Mahal). Moradabad is famous for its many shops and large exports of brass ornaments, artwork and statues to the whole world.

Day 7: Jim Corbett:

,After breakfast, you will drive to Moradabad to Corbett National Park located in the state of Uttaranchal in the foothills of Himalayas. The Ramganga River runs through the park's low mountains. Along the riverside are often crocodiles and freshwater turtles soaking in the sun. On the grass plains, south of the park's headquarters you'll find abundant wildlife: Indian elephants, leopards, jackals, langur monkeys, wild boars and others. In addition, there are over 500 bird species, including hornbills and sea eagles. Overnight at Resort.

Day 8: Jim Corbett:

Today, you will spend entire day in the national park. You come on a jeep safari with a guide. If you are lucky, you can get a glimpse of one of the park's tigers. Overnight at Resort.

Note: If there is heavy rainfall, there is a risk that the Jeep Safari might be cancelled due to security reasons.

Day 9: Haridwar:

After breakfast, you will drive to Haridwar (150 km) -one of the seven sacred cities in India-lies at the foot of Shivalik mountains where the Ganges leaves the mountains and spreads into the north Indian plains. The Ganges and the holy "Vishnu footprint" make it an important pilgrimage site. No alcohol is available and you cannot bring your own. Only Hindu vegetarian food is available in town. Overnight at hotel.

Day 10: Shimla:

After breakfast, you will drive to Shimla (2,205m) is a pleasant city with a strong British influence and a pleasant climate in summer. The city center-Mall Road-is often closed to vehicle traffic, which creates a relaxed atmosphere. The streets are steep and narrow, and the many well-preserved houses from the English colonial times. We recommend a hike up to Jakhu temple (40 mins). Overnight at hotel.

Day 11: Shimla:

After breakfast, you will drive from Shimla to Manali (260 km), a well-developed mountain village in the Indian Himalayas (2,050m). The city is characterised by the fact that a large part of the city's residents come from neighbouring Tibet. From Manali you are likely to see snowy mountain peaks. Don't miss the charming old town and the Tibetan bazaar. Overnight at hotel.

Day 12: Manali:

Today you can look forward to a truly beautiful drive up to Rohtang Pass (3,979m).

At the mountain pass it is possible to go skiing, snowboarding, riding on yak, eat a light lunch or simply enjoy the amazing views of the Himalayan snow-capped mountain peaks. On the way back to Manali, we take a look at Solang Valley. There are opportunities for optional activities such as paragliding, four-wheel and off-road motorcycles, riding on horseback and shooting drills. (Any activities in the Solang Valley or Rohtang Pass are not included in price). Alternatively, you can choose to relax and enjoy the landscape. Overnight at hotel.

Note : If roads to Solang or any other places are closed by authorities due to heavy snow, 4x4 vehicles might need to be hired by the customer on a direct payment basis. A trip all the way up to Rohtang Pass is only available after winter when the snow gets clear from the road. The customer has to hire a local vehicle / pay direct for the trip to Rohtang.

Terms & Conditions

Go Beyond reserves the right to change, update and/or alter these terms and conditions at any time and without prior notice.

Age Policy : Adults: 06 and above years of age; Children: 0 to 05 years of age

In case of Cancellations of tours or a particular service

Here are the general conditions and guidelines if you are traveling with us OR doing business with us at any destination where we offer our experiences.

Cancellation Policy -

Travelers/Guests/Customers OR booking Agents must notify Go Beyond Tours in writing on mail@gobeyondtours.in for any cancellation. We will NOT provide partial or full refunds for missed or unused services. Our cancellation policies and related fees are mentioned as a percent of the total booking price based on the booking's start date i.e. first day of service.

The following cancellation policy is applicable and applicable fees is mentioned as a percentage of total booking price for Standard Tours booked directly on our website -

- 100% refund of the total booking price IF the cancellation request is received more than 30 days prior to the travel date / first day of service.
- 50% refund of the total booking price IF the cancellation request is received between 15 and 29 days prior to the travel date i.e. first day of service.
- No refund of the total booking amount IF the cancellation is received less than 15 days prior to the travel date / first day of service.
- Compulsory cancellation fee applicable once you get the confirmation for trips with non-refundable services like train or air tickets, rides, jungle safari etc.
- Compulsory Service charge / cancellation fee applicable for customized trips / group tours as mentioned at the time of specific offers

Fixed Departures and shared services

Tours that are operated as "Go Together" / shared services, that is on a "join-in" basis, there is generally a minimum number of passengers that must be booked on the tour in order to assure that the tour departs. IF the number of customers on a particular join-in departure change after our customer books but before the tour departs, we reserve the right, at any time, to offer an alternative price for that departure and / or an alternative departure date notwithstanding the cancellation policy detailed above.

Specially for you Tours / Custom-Made Tours / Private Tours

Customized / Tailor-Made tours might have different cancellation policies at our discretion. The cancellation policy for tailor-made tours are always more stringent and is disclosed to the customer at the time of offer / prior to booking.

Cancellations By Go Beyond Tours

Go Beyond Tours reserve the right to cancel any trip for any reason that may occur due to circumstances that can make it unrealistic to run/continue a tour or service. Tour are ONLY canceled for unusual or unforeseen circumstances that are outside of our control or, in the case of shared / fixed tours, if there are too few people confirmed for us to operate the trip.

At a stage, when we cancel a tour, you may choose between a full refund of the amount paid or credit in that amount for any alternative trip. If the alternative trip is of lesser cost than the canceled trip, we might offer a partial refund, and pay you the difference. If the alternative trip is more costly than the canceled trip, we might ask you to pay the difference amount.

Please note we are not responsible for any incidental expenses or consequential losses that you incur as a result of the booking, such as, but not limited to, visas, vaccinations and non-refundable flights, missed connections, road blocks, adverse weather conditions, medical reasons and situations beyond control.

Customer Liability & Insurance

Guests traveling with us must be protected by their own travel insurance that covers accidents, medical expenses, emergency evacuation and loss or damage to personal effects. By participating in a product, package tour or activity with us, you agree to be responsible for all costs related to the above and exempt and fully release our company, our employees and our local partners from any and all liability, claims, demands, actions or causes of action whatsoever arising out of any damage, loss or injury to yourself, to your property, or death, which may occur as a result of or in the context of participation in a tour or activity, whether such loss, damage, injury or death results from the negligence and/or other fault, either active or passive, of any of the parties described, or from any other cause.

Travelers and participants must be able to provide proof of insurance. All customers traveling with us and our suppliers / service partners do acknowledge that no refunds will be provided for any reason if the customer cannot furnish and we are unable to verify the proof of insurance purchase prior to your trip with us. In all cases, customers should seek refunds from their insurance provider prior to requesting a refund from Go Beyond.

Also note that coverage, such as insurance for trip cancellation or the loss of luggage and personal effects is not required, but strongly encouraged. We are not liable for lost or stolen luggage.

Disputes and applicable law

Please note that any and all Terms and Conditions that you abide by in traveling with us, including all matters arising from these Terms and Conditions, are subject to the law and the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts exclusively in the destination in which we have provided services to you.
