Extra Activity :

There are several places in India that are home to several temples and shrines of the Hindu religion and the other. However, Mathura and Vrindavan hold a special place when it comes to holy Hindu shrines. The two towns together, are known to be the birthplace of Hindu God Lord Krishna and also where he grew up and spent most of his early years. There are several magnificent temples in Mathura and Vrindavan presided by the aforesaid deity along with Radha Ji. Boasting of divine peace and calm, these beautiful temples in Mathura and Vrindavan are not to be missed even if you are just a passing tourist. Constructed in beautiful architectural style and known for their age old history, the temples are also popular among history buffs.
