Day 2: Leh:

Leh - Excursion to Sham Valley

After breakfast, you drive downstream along the River Indus on Leh – Kargil Highway and start your sightseeing with the Hall Of Fame (Museum Constructed by India Army) near Leh this is worth a visit for every Indian You will then proceed further to Gurudwara Patthar Sahib at an altitude of 3600 Mtrs about 22 km from Leh, which was constructed in memory of Guru Nanak Dev Ji. Nestled deep in the Himalayas, a drive of another 4 km takes us to the Magnetic Hill which defies the law of gravity. As you move ahead from Magnetic Hills, just before Nimmu Village, there comes a famous Confluence of Two Rivers, Indus River coming from Tibet (left) and Zaskar River coming from Zaskar Valley (right). Zaskar River is known for its famous Chadar Trek. Later we drove back to Leh. Evening visit to Leh Palace, Shanti Stupa & Leh Market. Overnight at the Hotel.

Day 3: Nubra Valley:

Leh–Nubra Valley via Khardung La

Post breakfast we drove to Nubra Valley. The road journey from Leh to Nubra Valley passes over Khardung La (The Highest Motorable Road In The World) at 5,602 Mtrs / 18,390 Ft, around 39 km from Leh. From the pass, one can see all the way south over the Indus valley to seemingly endless peaks and ridges of the Zaskar range, and north to the giants of the Saser massif. Nubra Valley is popularly known as Ldumra or the valley of flowers. It is situated in the north of Ladakh between the Karakoram and Ladakh ranges of the Himalayas. The average altitude of the valley is 10,000 Ft. above sea level. Upon arrival in Nubra, we check in at our Camp or Hotel. In the evening we drive to Hunder where you have an opportunity to ride on a Bactrian camel (double humped) amidst the sand dunes of this high-altitude desert with snowcapped mountains on the horizon. Between Hunder and Diskit you come across sand dunes besides the road. Seen in isolation you could well be amongst the sand dunes of the Thar Desert in Rajasthan. On the return stop at Diskit which is the headquarter town of the Nubra Valley. Stroll around the bazaar observing the shops and local people going about their daily chores. Diskit is famous for 515 years old Buddhist Monastery, lying magnificently situated on a hilltop, facing the entire Valley. Later we drove back to the camp for dinner & overnight

Day 4: Nubra Valley:

Turtuk village; Witness the local culture of Ladakh

Post breakfast, we'll start our journey further North; the valley starts closing in dramatically as we pass the IAF base at Thoise driving through some fantastic scenery. By afternoon, we'll reach the picturesque border village of Turtuk which technically falls in Balistan - the Bal region of Pakistan & was annexed by India during the 1971 war. Spend the rest of the day walking around and interacting with the locals - the whole feel is like being in Pakistan but rest assured the locals are very friendly & patriotic towards India. Get to interact with wonderfully warm & hospitable locals with their cherubic European looks - the kids are adorable; and the vistas when you go on walks in the surrounding region. You can also visit the famous Apricots farms - collect some if you want to. Return to Nubra in the evening for dinner and overnight stay.

Day 5: Pangong Tso:

Nubra Valley to Pangong Lake

Post breakfast we drive towards Pangong Tso via Agham & Shyok Valley. Some of the road patches in areas are extremely tough (towards Nubra side) in terms of road conditions but no doubt the journey is very scenic! Later after crossing this adventurous part, we drive further towards Durbuk & Tangtse for Pangong. You pass through a few small villages of Changthang and finally, you can have a sudden view of the Pangong lake situated at 14,000 feet (4,267 m). This famous blue brackish Lake of Pangong is 5/6 Kms wide and over 133 Kms long with half of it running the other side of the "Indo China Border".
