KHWAI - SABLE ALLEY - 2 Nights / 3 Days

Cities Covered: >> KHWAI

Package Highlights:

Lagoonside LifeNot only is Khwai Private Reserve one of Botswana's best kept secrets, it's also home to the lovely Sable Alley. Opened in 2017, Sable is a piece of light, bright and beautiful luxury amid the game-rich floodplains of Khwai, and the best news is that it's as sustainable as it is sophisticated. We've partnered with the local communities in Khwai, and proceeds from staying at Sable Alley go straight back into the Khwai Village community projects. And what about the wildlife? Located right on the banks of a lily-covered lagoon, home to harrumphing hippo and a favourite drinking spot for elephant and buffalo, the big game quite literally comes to you at Sable. But as tempting as it is to stay in camp, venture out you should, for Khwai offers one of Africa's greatest and most exclusive safari experiences. Have your binos at the ready for lion, leopard, wild dog, buffalo, elephant and hundreds of dainty antelope as you drive through the diverse landscapes.

NOTE

- Sable Alley is located in the Khwai private reserve which means you are only sharing our game viewing area with our other camps.
- Enjoy sweeping views of the wildlife-dotted lagoon from each tent – this is world-class game viewing without leaving camp.
- The game viewing in the area around Sable Alley is fantastic, and you'll find lion, leopard, elephant, buffalo all in close proximity as well as a multi-coloured array of birdlife.
- We allow a maximum of seven guests per vehicle and only three vehicles are allowed at any sighting meaning there's not an overcrowded game drive in sight.
- There's an exciting range of activities to get stuck into, including day and evening game drives, mokoro (dugout canoe) excursions (when water levels permit), game walks, viewing hides, and more.

Day 2: KHWAI:

KHWAI PRIVATE RESERVE

- Have breakfast
- Activities as per the camp
- All meals at the camp

There's never a bad time to visit Sable Alley (really). There's something different in every season but, most importantly, the wildlife is out-of-this-world excellent all year round. Resident hippo splash in the inland pools, elephant and buffalo herds are hard to miss, and you're never more than a few whiskers away from a lion pride.

From May onwards the Okavango Delta floods. Seasonal channels emerge, perfect for paddling around on a mokoro canoe safari – you might just have to share them with a few antelope. In June to September, the Delta floods really get going, and the heightened water levels mean mokoro and motorboat safaris are possible all day, every day.

December to March brings the summer rains. The grasses grow, and on a single game drive you might not see as many animals; but every rain cloud has a silver lining, and there's a good chance of encountering big cats stalking their prey, the thick bushes allowing them to hunt undetected. And don't let the thought of rain put you off – downpours are short and sporadic, and a good, waterproof jacket will see you through pretty much anything the weather throws at you.

Day 3: KHWAI:

KHWAI TO MAUN

- Have breakfast
- Check out

NB: Extra nights added on request from US$1430 per person per night + US$30 Conservation Fee per night
