Itinerary:

Day 1: Leh:

Arrival in Leh || Rest & Acclimatization Day

On arriving in Leh, get briefed on the programme and upcoming events of your journey. Thereafter, transfer to the guesthouse and enjoy an overnight stay.

Day 2: Nubra Valley:

Leh – Khardung La – Nubra Valley (approx. 130 km) || Bike Allotment & Gear Up for Highest Motorable Road

This section of the excursion takes you to Nubra Valley. Due to its high altitude and the sand dunes found here, this remote settlement is often referred to as the desert in the sky. The route to the village goes through the famed Khardung La. At an altitude of over 18000 feet, this pass is one of the highest motorable roads in the world. Driving on this route, enjoy scenic views of the surrounding landscape before reaching your destination. Upon arrival in Nubra Valley, transfer to your camp and stay overnight.

Day 3: Nubra Valley:

Nubra to Turtuk to Nubra (3,001 m) | 200 KMS | 7 Hours

After the sun peeps out, you will pack your bags as you will leave for Turtuk village which was under Pakistan before 1971. Nestled in the Nubra tehsil, 205 km from the Leh town, on the banks of the Shyok River, it is the last village before LO C. With stunning beauty throughout the valley, you will be blessed with views you might have not seen before. After exploring Turtuk you will ride back towards Nubra.

Bikes, Breakfast, Dinner and Overnight Stay at Swiss Camps in Nubra

Day 4: Pangong:

Nubra valley to Pangong Tso (approx. 130 km)

Gear up for the adventure this day holds for you, it is for sure going to blow your mind. Instead of simply returning to Leh, you will now head to the Pangong Tso lake. This road provides for the actual thrill of riding in Ladakh. If off-roading and river crossing were on your biking adventure list, this day accommodates everything. From the very first glimpse of it, Pangong Lake is known to leave a lasting impression on visitors. Take the narrow stretch of land that leads you directly to the lake and be greeted by a huge mass of water that stretches over 100 km and extends from India to China. Click memorable pictures with the deep azure water or just stand there mesmerized by the lake's beauty – the experience is nothing short of exceptional. Overnight stay at Pangong.

Day 5: Leh:

Pangong Tso to Leh
(approx. 225 km)

In this phase of the biking adventure in Ladakh trip, travel to Pangong Tso to relish its spectacular sights. Situated at an altitude of around 14000 feet, this lake stretches from India to China. On a good day, numerous species of migratory and resident birds can be seen here. While travelling towards the lake, pass through Chang La, another high mountain pass. After reaching the destination, enjoy a bonfire and then an overnight stay in tents.

Day 6: Leh:

Departure from Leh
after the Breakfast

Get transfer to the airport on your own to board the flight for your onward journey.
